

BRINGING STAKEHOLDERS TOGETHER TO FIND SOLUTIONS: A STUDY OF A SYSTEM TO ADDRESS CROSS-BORDER CHILD TRAFFICKING IN SOUTH ASIA

Dr John Lannon

Centre for Project Management,
Kemmy Business School
University of Limerick

Presentation Overview

- Paper Objectives
- The Case Study: Missing Child Alert Project
- The Feasibility Study
- Research Findings and Conclusions

Paper Objectives

1. To examine the use of the DEMIR framework in the feasibility study stage of a complex development project
2. To explore how the many diverse perspectives on an issue as challenging as cross-border child trafficking can be brought together in an a greed roadmap for action

The Missing Child Alert Project

Trilateral Convention of Stakeholders on Missing Child Alert

Jointly Organised by SAIEVAC and Plan Asia Regional Office

Bangkok, Thailand, 26-28 February 2013.

